

Application for Online Study Recruitment

Title of Project:

Date of Application:

Contact Details of Principal Investigator:

Name:

Professional Affiliation:

Street Address:

City, Province:

Country, Postal Code:

Please list the name, country of permanent residence, and professional affiliation of each additional investigator:

Funding:

Has funding been secured? Y / N

If yes, please name the funding source of the research:

Please explain financial or other conflicts of interest that could, either in actuality or appearance, compromise the integrity of the research.

Please detail the study's anxiety-related aims, objectives and research questions:

811 – 402 W Pender St
Vancouver, BC, V6B 1T6
604.620.0743
Info@AnxietyCanada.com

What are the specific characteristics of the participants being sought (e.g., age, gender, diagnostic category, if known, etc.)?

What (if any) benefits can participants anticipate from participating in the research?

Please detail the potential risks to participants getting involved in the research.

What is the anticipated end date for participant enrolment and data collection?

Please email your completed application to <info@AnxietyCanada.com>. Please attach your accepted REB / IRB to this application.

Thank you for submitting your application. Following review by the Scientific Advisory Committee of Anxiety Canada, a decision will be forwarded to the principal investigator typically within one month of submission. If the decision is unfavourable, a brief explanation anchored to the application criteria will be provided.